A bottle of 6 O'clock Gin stands on the left, its dark glass reflecting the ambient light. The bottle's label is dark with gold text and a large, ornate number '6' that incorporates a clock face design. To the right, a tall, slender glass is filled with a vibrant red liquid, ice cubes, and a slice of yellow lemon. The background is dark with soft, out-of-focus blue bokeh lights. A white, cloud-like shape frames the title and subtitle text on the right side of the image.
